The larger companies report that they are receiving and sending out about as much milk as on Saturday—about as much as the city will consume under the sub-depot and huckster system of selling, or 70 per cent. of the amount sold by house to house deliveries. A few routes in neighborhoods in which there is the least chance for disorder were started today, but no general effort at house to house distribution will be made until continuous police protection is available after Election Day.

A sub-committee of the Milk Conference Board, with Patrick D. Fox of Borden's as Chairman, was established today to deal with the problem of profiteering in milk by storekeepers and peddlers. Mr. Fox announced that where such persons exacted a profit of more than a cent or two for handling milk they would be blacklisted and huckster trucks would be put into competition with them in their neighborhoods.

Mr. Fox, Leton H. Horton of the Sheffield Farms and Charles Neider of the Empire State made an appointment for a conference with Dr. Cope, land on general conditions at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The Sheffield Farms reported today that Charles Randazzo, a newly employed truck driver, and his helper were taken from their truck by six strikers yesterday and kidnapped in a closed car in Union Hill, N. There was a quarrel among strike-breakers at the High Ground Dairy at Sumner and Monroe Avenues, Brooklyn, today in which the police intervened. They arrested William Heaton of No. 360 Lexington Avenue, and Nicolio Termini of No. 42 East Street, charging them with carrying revolvers.

In the Nassau County suburbs yesterday the distribution trucks, each accompanied by two county motorcycle policemen, left such milk as was not bought by the householder direct from the trucks, at road houses and ice cream parlors, and the proprietors put out impromptu signs announcing the supply. To-day the distribution through chain stores was resumed.

A number of women not connected with any organized welfare movement have volunteered as salesmen in the Sheffield emergency branches. Supt. A. L. Van Bommel said today. In the store at No. 950 Park Avenue an Evening World reporter found Mrs. John Jacob Gunther of No. 45 East 1st Street, robed in a fur cloak worth as much as the store itself, dishing out milk to women and children. She refused to talk about herself or the strike.

Lawrence Clancy of No. 191 Wyon Street, Brooklyn, was arrested today by Policemen Albrecht for striking George Kutcher, who was delivering milk at Wyona and Blinks Streets for the Quaker State Dairy.

A mass meeting of the striking milk employees will be held tonight in Madison Square Garden to acquaint them with the situation to-day.

WIVES OF STRIKERS COMPLAIN TO MAYOR HILAN.

A committee of women who said they were the wives of strikers, many of them accompanied by children, went to the City Hall today to complain to Mayor Hylan against the "brutal treatment" of their husbands by policemen acting as guards to milk wagons.

Mrs. James A. Lahey was Chairman of the delegation. Mrs. Anna Mancuso of Third Avenue and 11th Street told the Mayor she had seen a policeman shoot the hat from a strikers' head in front of a milk store in 10th Street Saturday night and then clutch her. Mr. K. Kramer said she "saw a red headed policeman beat a strikers' with the butt of a revolver in 11th Street near Second Avenue.

Mrs. S. G. Weisburd said she heard a policeman say to a group of strikers in 10th Street last night: "If you can't understand me when I talk to you with a club I'll put a bullet in your legs." She also asserted that persons were permitted to use unwashed bottles as containers. The Mayor said he would look into the complaints before Commissioner Copeland insofar as they related to unwholesome practices and sent the delegation to Commissioner Enright, promising punishment for all brutal policemen.

George C. Peoppel was held without bail in the First Criminal Court, Jersey City, today by Judge Sullivan when arraigned for murder in connection with the killing of Detective James Diney Saturday to avoid arrest on a charge of passing worthless checks.

Mrs. Alice McCarthy Peoppel, seventeen, whom Peoppel is alleged to have married in Hamilton June 29, collapsed when she learned the police wanted him for murder, and that her information, given without knowledge of why he was wanted, had led the police to his hiding place. Capt. James Larkins of the West Montgomery Street Station, who made the complaint against Peoppel, filed with it an alleged signed confession to the killing. Larkins said that Peoppel told him he had a wife and child living in Brooklyn.

No one has called on Peoppel in prison, although he is supposed to have a wife and mother living at No. 509 Woodward Avenue, Ridge-wood, Queens, where Mrs. Alice Peoppel says she lived with Peoppel after their marriage.

Warrant Officer Hachmader of the Gate Avenue Court, Brooklyn, said today he has had a warrant for the arrest of a George C. Peoppel on a charge of disorderly conduct since last April when Peoppel's wife, Phoebe, complained he attacked her and tried to tear their two-year-old child from her arms.

CAN'T TAKE W. S. S. FROM CERTIFICATE

To Do So Is Counterfeiting, Supreme Court Holds in Ruling Against New York Dealer.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Removal of a war savings stamp from the certificate upon which it was issued constitutes a crime, the Supreme Court held today.

The question arose in the Federal District Court at New York, where the Government failed in its effort to convict Paul Sacks of purchasing certificates and removing the stamps. The Government contended this was an alteration of a Government security prohibited by the laws against counterfeiting.

Janowitz, Herman Oestreicher, Henry Goldstein, Etta Levine, Julius Roth and John C. Dalton also were named defendants and must stand trial, the decision holding the lower courts had erred in dismissing the original indictments.

In this opinion the Court declared membership on the exchange was a property right, intangible, but taxable. It pointed out that Anderson paid $60,000 for the seat.

PREMIER BRIAND HERE, PLEDGES FRANCE'S AID IN PREVENTING WARS

have known us for a long time. But during the last war your sons have lived among us, sharing the same dangers and the same hopes; such unforgettable hours create an everlasting intimacy. These two countries of ours are lands of liberty.

"I am here to demonstrate the earnest good will of France by every means in my power. I earnestly trust that the Washington meeting will give us an opportunity in this respect. France and America yesterday united on the battlefields, will thus continue to play their beneficent part in deriving from their common victory such results as will conform with the idealism that has ever animated them."

Premier Briand, who comes to the conference with a free hand, untrammelled, has the following general policies in his mind as a working basis:

First—The French Government's obligations to the League of Nations do not preclude France from joining other powers inside or outside the League in limiting armaments or setting other questions that the League considers as within its jurisdiction.

Second—French policy is identical with that of the United States toward equal commercial opportunities in China.

Third—The restriction of sea armaments offers no difficulties peculiar to France. Her navy is already below any formula likely to be adopted.

Fourth—French interests concentrated upon her armaments. Their strength is conditioned by Germany and the payment of non-payment of reparations. German reparations and military questions are considered to be closely related to when and how France can begin to meet her American debt. Therefore, if Washington desires to raise the question of the debts in the conference, the French delegation would be prepared to discuss them.

Briand's reception in New York was much less spectacular than those given to Foch and Diaz, partly because Briand himself had asked for a minimum of formality and partly because of the brevity of the interval between the docking of the ship and the departure of the special train for Washington.

The police boat Hylan took Rodman Wanamaker, Grover Whalen and former Police Inspector Dwyer down the bay to escort the Lafayette to her berth at the White House today from Japan and handed to President Harding a number of 10,000 Japanese women, praying that everything possible will be done to end war at the coming conference.

NEW ARREST MADE IN ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER HARA

Slaying Now Believed to Have Been Result of Plot—Unrest Grows in Japan.

TOKIO, Nov. 7 (Associated Press).—Elgoro Hashimoto, assistant station master at the Otsuma Railway Station, where Premier Takashi Hara was assassinated Friday night, has been arrested, charged with complicity in the crime. About twenty other employees at the station were released after being questioned.

Yoshi Nakoka, the assassin, insists, the police say, that he had no accomplices. The police believe, however, that the Statesman's death was brought about through a conspiracy. This belief is strengthened by the fact that a well-dressed, unidentified man was seen hurrying from the station at the moment Nakoka thrust his sword into the Premier's breast. The authorities are of the opinion that the youth's statement that he alone conceived the crime was made in an effort to shield his co-conspirators.

Nakoka was hiding on the station platform when the Premier and a number of other leaders of the Seiyukai party arrived to take the 7:30 train for Kyoto, where a meeting was to be held. As the Premier, chatting with his companions, passed through the gate leading to the station platform Nakoka leaped from his hiding place and plunged a short sword into Hara's left breast, at the same time exclaiming: "The country's enemy!"

First aid was administered to the stricken Premier in the station master's room, and he was then taken to his home, where he died within a short time.

Marquis Matsukata, Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal, following a conference at the Palace yesterday with Marquis Salongi, Prince Yamagata, in Odawara, to confer with the Prince, who is ill. Prince Yamagata is one of the Elder Statesmen and a member of the Military Council of Empire. No announcement as to reconstruction of the Cabinet is expected until Marquis Matsukata's return.

Marquis Salongi is most prominently mentioned for the Premiership, but it is doubtful if he would accept. Viscount Makino is also being considered for the post.

TOKIO, Nov. 6 (Delayed).—A malarial fever was growing in Japan to-night as leaders of the Elder Statesmen conferred in the Imperial palace regarding the successor to the late Premier Hara.

This uneasiness increased in the face of renewed assurances by Prince Yamagata of the Elder Statesmen and Marquis Salongi, one of the liberal leaders, that Japan's foreign and domestic policies would not be changed as a result of Premier Hara's assassination.

Should Salongi be named to head the government it was assumed there would be little change in the personnel of the Ministry which has formally resigned, but if Yamagata should be designated it was feared the government complexion would be almost wholly conservative.

Charles H. Warren, American Ambassador, visited acting Premier Uchida and conveyed the condolences of President Harding and Secretary Hughes.

more watched the party start in motor cars for the Pennsylvania Station. The delegation included former Premier Viviani, with Mrs. Viviani; Maurice Casenave, French High Commissioner; Philippe Berthelot, Secretary General of French Foreign Affairs; Albert Sarraut, Minister of Colonies; Admiral Baud, Naval Chief of Staff; and Gen. Buat, representing the French Army. The delegation numbers over sixty persons.

During a rain Saturday night off Cape Cod the Lafayette shipped huge seas and one of the shutters on a promenade deck was bent open. Near were M. Viviani, Col. Bunau-Varilla and several women, among them Mrs. Elisa Stern of New York. M. Viviani got wet to the knees and two women fainted. Col. Bunau-Varilla, who lost a leg in the war, could not run, so he held to the rail and only his wooden leg got wet.

Before going to the station the party was taken on an automobile drive from the pier up Broadway and through Central Park and on to Van Cortlandt Park, returning by way of the Concourse and Riverside Drive. The train left at noon.
